The essay question is: Describe an experience you have had in nature, and how you connected with that experience personally. How does that make you want to be more environmentally responsible?

Your essay should concentrate on this theme. Essays should be 500 words or less and double-spaced. Handwritten essays will be accepted, but please make them legible. Be sure to include a word count in the bottom right corner of the essay.

Please mail or deliver essays to:

Cascadia Conservation District
Attn: Earth Day Essay Contest
14 N Mission St.
Wenatchee, WA 98801

The deadline for submission is April 7th, 2017. Entries postmarked April 8th or later will automatically be disqualified.

The winner will be announced on our website by April 22nd, 2017. The winning essay will be featured in Cascadia's "Conservation Quarterly" newsletter (which goes out with the Wenatchee World), and on our website and other media outlets. The writers of the top three essays will receive hand painted field journals created by local artist Heather A. Wallis Murphy and a student membership to the Wenatchee Valley Museum and Cultural Center!

If you have any questions, please call our office at (509) 436-1601.

Please note: All submissions will become the property of Cascadia Conservation District.

Good luck and happy writing!
